Cloverdale Paint Proudly Canadian Owned & Operated

SURREY, BC (March 7, 2025) – From our humble beginnings in 1933, Cloverdale Paint has grown into the largest Canadian-owned paint manufacturer in Canada and the largest family-owned coatings manufacturer in North America.

Our 7 manufacturing facilities remain proudly located in Canada, supporting local workers and communities.

Not only are Cloverdale Paint products manufactured in Canada, but unlike other multi-national paint suppliers, assets of the company are Canadian-owned, and profits remain in Canada.

Why does this matter? Because we know that when you choose a Canadian-made product, you're investing in our shared home and heritage. You're helping keep jobs in our communities, strengthening our economy, and fueling the innovative spirit that Canada is known for worldwide. Together, we're carrying on the tradition of quality, reliability, and pride that makes our nation so special.

Thank you for considering Cloverdale Paint and "Buy Canadian" for your painting and coatings needs.

About Cloverdale Paint Inc.

Cloverdale Paint is a Canadian market leader and coatings innovator. We are the largest family-owned coatings company in North America. We operate directly and through a US-based subsidiary in Portland, Oregon (Rodda-Miller Paint Company) with manufacturing plants in Surrey, Calgary, Winnipeg, London, Oakville, Mississauga, Montréal, Portland, Vancouver WA and Wood's Cross UT. We distribute our brands of architectural and industrial coatings as well as related products through 180 corporate service centers and over 350 Independent Dealers throughout Canada and the Pacific Northwest of the United States. Cloverdale Paint formulates architectural, industrial liquid and powder coatings as well as tapes and adhesives and holds a dominant position in industrial markets including agricultural and construction equipment, forestry, oil and gas, power transmission, truck body and trailers, water and wastewater management and coil coatings for metal buildings, roofing and drainage. Cloverdale Paint Inc. is proudly Canadian owned.
